

Freedom

"Since coming to The King's Lodge, I have found so much freedom. God has bought me out of the darkness of lies and unbelief, of fear and rejection, and pulled me lovingly into His Kingdom of light – where I find complete joy and life in Him. Every day I find more of my identity in Him, I get more revelation of His love, more understanding of who I am in Christ. I am constantly blown away by God's goodness, that He would call me here, to this place, to be a part of building His Kingdom. I honestly think I have the best job in the world, the most rewarding job – being a part of DTS's and seeing young people find the freedom and joy that I have found in God is such an incredible privilege and I thank God every day for this. The journey He has me on is an exciting one, full of challenges and some twists and turns and dips, but I wouldn't want to be anywhere else!"
